where the mountains meet the sea

Welcome to Conwy; home to mountains, castles, miles of beautiful coastline and a world heritage site. Award-winning beaches are plentiful here, as is a history as rich and colourful as the landscape.

The famous coastal town of Llandudno is a perfect combination of Victorian splendour and modern convenience. On the west shore, unspoilt sandy beaches provide magnificent views of the Conwy estuary, the Isle of Anglesey, Puffin Island and the Great Orme, whilst the splendid Victorian pier on the North Shore offers entertainment to cater to every need.

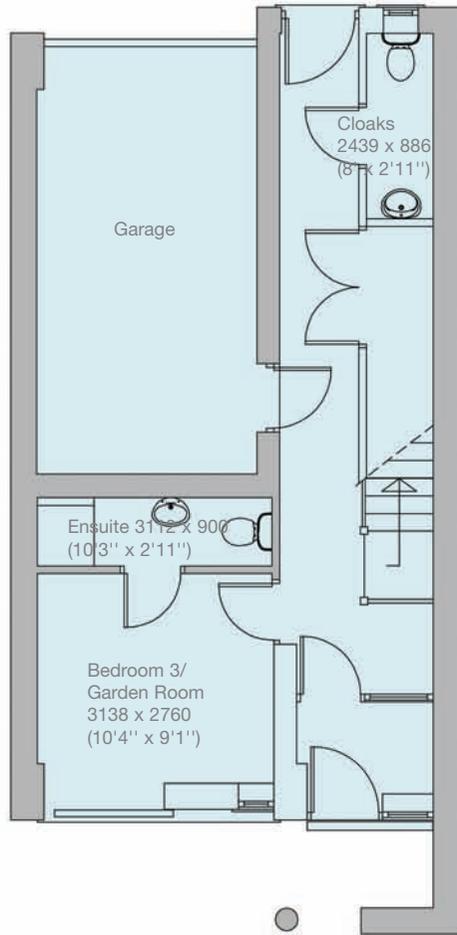

Llandudno's restaurants and cafes offer the finest in local quality produce and international cuisine, whilst a vast choice of bars and pubs serve beers, wines and spirits from around the world. Chic boutiques also provide a wide range of shopping.

Whatever your hobbies or pastimes, Llandudno offers a range of activities to suit everyone, from sailing to fishing, windsurfing to jetskiing, or just a simple stroll along the promenade.

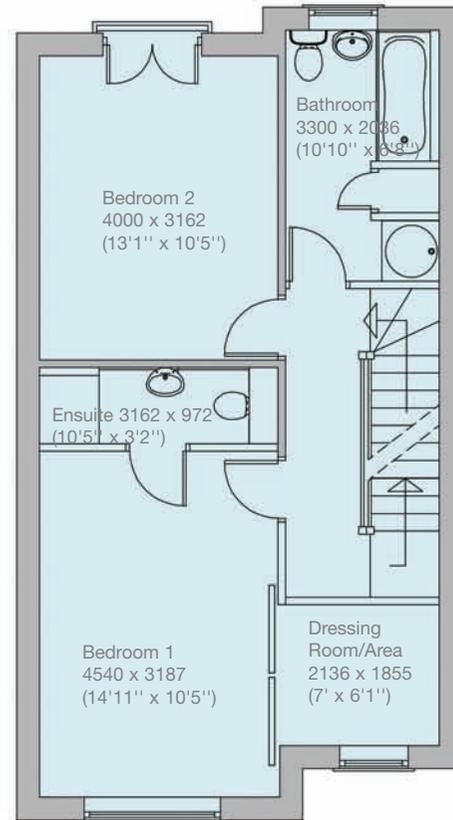

And Kennington Court can be found in the very heart of Llandudno; eight brand new luxurious townhouses in the centre of this wonderful seaside town. An opportunity not to be missed.
